CELEBRATION FOR CHILDREN’S RIGHTS: A BENEFIT FOR THE LOUISIANA CENTER FOR CHILDREN’S RIGHTS Thursday, April 3rd (6-8:30pm)

About Our Work:

LCCR protects the constitutional right to an attorney for more than 90% of New Orleans’ children in the juvenile legal system – 593 children in FY24. Additionally, through our partnership with the East Baton Rouge Office of the Public Defender, we provided social work support to another 136 children last year. We’re so much more than a nonprofit law office though. We meet our kids at a moment of crisis and provide the wraparound services necessary to leave the legal system behind for good. We help our kids enroll in school, secure special education supports, access job training, and address trauma.

The result? More kids staying in their homes, schools, and communities. This means healthier young people, safer neighborhoods, and saved taxpayer dollars. We’re continually inspired by the strength of our kids and how, working with LCCR’s programming, they build brighter futures for themselves.

About the Event:

The Celebration for Children’s Rights affords us the opportunity to celebrate our successes and come together to make Louisiana a better place for all children. This cocktail reception will be held at “The Building,” a beautiful gallery and performance space located at 1427 Oretha Castle Haley Blvd. Business or business casual attire preferred. Estimated attendance: 200.

We are proud that so many national, regional, and local law firms and businesses joined us in sponsoring LCCR’s work and kids in 2024: law firms such as Barrasso Usdin, Jones Walker, Kuchler Polk Weiner, and Akin Gump, and businesses like the National Basketball Social Justice Coalition, Hancock Whitney, BCBS of Louisiana, Edifice Builders, and InspireNOLA. We hope to have you partner with us in 2025!
