20 YEARS: A CELEBRATION FOR CHILDREN'S RIGHTS

CELEBRATING TWO DECADES OF THE LOUISIANA CENTER FOR CHILDREN'S RIGHTS

Thursday, April 2nd (6-8:30pm)

About Our Work:

LCCR protects the constitutional right to an attorney for more than 90% of New Orleans' children in the juvenile legal system – 541 children in FY25. Additionally, through our partnership with the East Baton Rouge Office of the Public Defender, we provided social work support to another 165 children last year. We're so much more than a nonprofit law office though. We meet our kids at a moment of crisis and provide the wraparound services necessary to leave the legal system behind for good. We help our kids enroll in school, secure special education supports, access job training, and address trauma.

As a result, more kids are staying in their homes, schools, and communities, and staying out of prison. This means healthier young people, safer neighborhoods, and saved taxpayer dollars. We're continually inspired by the strength of our kids and how, working with LCCR's programming, they build brighter futures for themselves.

About the Event:

The Louisiana Center for Children's Rights is turning 20! Since 2006, LCCR has helped thousands of arrested children achieve the safety and stability necessary to grow up healthy and leave the legal system behind for good. In doing so, we have become a nationwide leader in showcasing what an effective response to youth arrest can and should look like. Join us as we celebrate our 20-year legacy of changing young lives, and our communities, for the better.

This cocktail reception fundraiser will be held on Thursday, April 2 (6-8:30pm) at The Building, a beautiful art space located at 1427 Oretha Castle Haley Blvd. (just across from the Jazz Market). Business or business casual attire preferred. Estimated attendance: 250.

We are proud that so many national, regional, and local law firms and businesses joined us in sponsoring LCCR's work and kids in 2025: law firms such as Barrasso Usdin, Troutman Pepper Locke, Kuchler Polk Weiner, and Akin, and businesses like Hancock Whitney, BCBS of Louisiana, Methodist Health System Foundation, and Perrier Esquerré Contractors. We hope to have you partner with us in 2026!
